I do not know the mind of God and I cannot guess His thoughts
But I have searched for you across the void when my sense of self was lost
The answer stands to brush my grasp in the darkness and the pain
And I saw myself for all I am, the decisions I have made

With hearts immortal, we stand before our lives
A soul against oblivion, forever asking why
This upside down symphony in a paradox called life
Our hearts immortal
What you give to love, will never die

And when my ashes scatter here with my memories to the wind
What endures beyond the silent edge is the essence found within
Have we forgotten truly who we are and what our living means
Our purpose lies in others eyes and the realities that we bring

With hearts immortal, we stand before our lives
A soul against oblivion, forever asking why
This upside down symphony in a paradox called life
Our hearts immortal
What you give to love, will never die
All that I am-Ben buyum
And all that I dream-Hayal ettiÄŸim herÄŸey bu
Lives somewhere beyond-Biryerin ÄŸtesindeki yalanlar
Your image of me-Senin bana hayalin
And who I become-Ve ne olduÄŸum
And what I will be-Ve ne olacaÄŸÄ±m
Is not yours to decide-Senin karar vereceÄŸin birÄŸey deÄŸil
It comes only from me-KararÄ± sadece ben veririm.
One, two, ready, go-Bir, iki hazÄ±r ol, baÄŸla
