Scented pain and seperation
Defies the physics and the form
That life must to exist consume and be reborn
Why is this strange attraction
A call to arms with my destiny?
What choice or course of action?
Will you leave a path for me

Love laced with tragedy
A sense of agony
Why can't i feel love as in a fairy tale?
My world is growing stale
And now I've lost this...love

Systematicly paralyzed from the soul out towards the eyes
What i feel i have no traction to hold or realize
Winking into motivation
I do not trust the things i've seen
And now these lost and found sensations want to devour me.

Love laced with tragedy
A sense of agony
Why can't i feel love as in a fairy tale?
My heart is growing frail
And now I've lost this...love

Love laced with tragedy
A sense of agony
Why can't i feel love as in a fairy tale?
My heart is growing frail
And now I've lost this

Love into porvanity
My heart is suvering
Why canÃ½ i feel love as in a fairy tale?
My world is growing frail
And now i've lost this...love
