Dear angel
Where are your warming wings tonight?
It's so cold outside
Won't you hold me for a while
And angel
I feel alone and un-alive
The night is frozen
And these tears have stung my eyes

Dreams may pass and dreams may fade
Nothing I love will stay the same
Nothing ever stays the same

So angel
I feel so numb and so far away
I can see myself on the pavement where I lay
Oh angel
Why do I stare so?
What do I see?
Why do these lifeless eyes look that way back at me?

Dreams may pass and dreams may fade
Nothing I love will stay the same
Nothing under heaven stays the same

Dreams may pass and dreams may fade
Nothing I love will stay the same
Nothing ever stays the same
