May the fetus rot in your womb
May your first words to your child be spoken kneeling by his tomb
Death will follow inherited sin
Cause it's written, as in Sodom God will win.

We are marching for a purer world
A new crusade has started
Forever burn in your promiscuous hell
You sinners who are all double hearted

You are but a piece in the war
Climb that cock and scream in lust, inseminated little whore
You have soiled gods cradle of life
Giving birth without being a wife

We are marching for a purer world
A new crusade has started
Forever burn in your promiscuous hell
You sinners who are all double hearted

May the fetus rot in your womb
May the fetus rot in your womb
Rot in your womb
Rot in your womb
