Aow
Yea yea yea

The happiest day I ever knew
In a sea of gold down next to you
So blurred and tired under summer sun
You whispered dreams of a world to come
We were so in love

In this sea of gold so young and tired
Under summer sun hard by your side
Whispering dreams down next to you
We were so in love

The happiest day
Yea the happiest day I knew

The summer sun and sea of gold
This perfect day, so long ago
Whispering dreams so blurred and tired
We have to keep this day alive
Yea yea yea
Whispered dreams so young and tired
It's hard to hold this day inside

And the happiest night I ever had
Up next to you in silver sand
So scared and high under winter moon
You whispered dreams that would all come true
We were so in love

Up next to you so fucked and high
Under winter moon it made me cry
Whispering dreams on silver sand
We were so in love

The happiest night
Yea the happiest night I had

The winter moon and silver sand
This perfect night in another land
Whispering dreams so scared and high

We have to keep this night alive
Yea yea yea
Whispered dreams so fucked and high
It's hard to hold this night inside

Yea and every summer's sun I want again
And every winter's moon I want the same
My happiest day and my happiest night
Always next to you
And held deep inside

Keeps me alive
Keeps me alive
