Hey, it's a snow white original mix and she's fixing me
And the heartless thing she does is everything I love
It's all I ever need

Yeah, it's a skin tight sensational strip and she's tripping me
And the shameless way she turns
Is all I ever dream

You ask me why I use it
It could be just a way to pass the time
I never really choose it
It's just another play to lose

Yeah, it's a bright light promotional taste and she's wasting me
And the tearless time she breaks is everytime I ache
It's all I ever feel

You ask me why I need it
It's maybe just a way to pass the time
I never really mean it
It's just another play to lose
My mind

Yeah, it's a big night, emotional kill and she's thrilling me
And the careless way she hurts
Is all I ever scream

You ask me why I take it
It could be just a way to pass the time
I never really make it
It's just another play to lose

I'm coming up in the dark
And every part of me is bruised and raw and pained
I'm coming up in the dark
And every part of me is loose and sore and stained

And so I play it when I use it, if I need it then I take it
And I play it all again

And then I hold you, so cold you, like I know you
Yeah, like I always know and like I always lose
My mind
My mind

Yeah, I play it when I use it, if I need it then I take it
And I play it all again
And then I hold you, so cold you, like I know you
Like I always know and like I always lose
Like I always lose, like I always lose
My mind
