"The Same Deep Water As You"

Kiss me goodbye pushing out before I sleep
Can't you see I try swimming the same deep water as you is hard
The shallow drowned lose less than we
You breathe the strangest twist upon your lips

And we shall be together
Kiss me goodbye bow your head and join with me
And face pushed deep reflections meet
The strangest twist upon your lips

And disappear the ripples clear
And laughing break against your feet
And laughing break the mirror sweet
So we shall be together

Kiss me goodbye pushing out before I sleep
It's lower now and slower now
The strangest twist upon your lips
But I don't see and I don't feel

But tightly hold up silently
My hands before my fading eyes
And in my eyes your smile
The very last thing before I go

I will kiss you, I will kiss you
I will kiss you forever on nights like this
I will kiss you, I will kiss you
And we shall be together
