And so forever
Always end sometime

Now Iâ€™m alone below the cold of a painted sky
Remembering a love that became a lie
Knowing I canâ€™t scream
I can only cry
Forever

And so love goes by upon the wind
Goes by as though it had never been
I lift my hand and wipe the tears
The tearsÂ...

I just canâ€™t go on
Now my love has gone away

My imaginary world is fading fast
The dreams I dreamed could never last
I left my innocence in the past

With my broken heart

And so love goes by upon the wind
Goes by as though it had never been
I lift my hand and wipe the tears
The tearsÂ...

I just canâ€™t go on
Now my love has gone away

And so love goes by upon the wind
Goes by as though it had never been
I lift my hand and wipe the tears
The tearsÂ...

I just canâ€™t go on
Now my love has gone
I just canâ€™t go on
Now my love has gone away
