Forgive me baby
I'm so full of hearts
Swelled up with sadness and broken in parts
Forgive me baby
I know not what I do
But I do know
Honey
I love you

Forgive me child for the tears that I cry
I'm so frightened of death that I'm starting to die
Forgive me child if I can't find the truth
I was looking for Jesus and I wound up with you

Cracks in the ceiling
Split-screen feeling
And the sad
Happy blues
We've got nothing to lose except me
This and you

No one's gonna let you down
No
Not while I'm around
No one's gonna leave you here
I will always be near
And can't you feel this
It's like a kung fu grip kiss
There are stars just for your wish

Forgive me love if the coast wasn't clear
There was so much debris when I looked in the mirror
Forgive me love for my broken bones
It's the same anxious love bleeding right through the phone

Forgive me grace for my part in the war
They were beating me down
Breaking right through the door
Forgive me grace for the distance I feel
I was running away from the thing that was real

Cracks in the ceiling
Split-screen feeling
And the sad
Happy blues
This and you

No one's gonna let you down
No
Not while I'm around
No one's gonna leave you here
I will always be near

Come and free your prisoner from his burning cell
I'm with you baby
Rain or shine
Heaven or hell
(Heaven or hell)
I can't be alone without writing a sad
Sad song
When are you coming home

No one's gonna let you down
No
Not while I'm around

No one's gonna let you down
No
Not while I'm around

No one's gonna let you down
No
Not while I'm around
No one's gonna leave you here

No one's gonna let you down
No
Not while I'm around
No one's gonna leave you here

No one's gonna let you down
No

Not while I'm around

No one's gonna let you down
No
Not while I'm around
