You said so much last night
Holding your tonic too tight
Every eavesdropping drunk in the bar felt
Out of place
When you stood on the table and said you loved me
I was shaking like a child
All the lights in the room shined on your face
As we waited for what you'd say

Go on and tell the world babe
Go on and tell the world
Go on and tell the world babe
It's me and you

I wish my heart was like yours
You give everything you've got
All the sweetest things that I've ever known
I pushed away
I don't know why I do the things I do
I hate that I do them to you
I realize I have to change inside
But I swear I'm trying to

Go on and tell the world babe
Go on and tell the world
Go on and tell the world babe
It's me and you
