Let's meet up on the other side. Carefully, when you see the light just follow it. Because if this secrets brings us closer when there's distance in between her, then never tell. He'll never know. And we'll find a home away from home.

Let's make this last forever until the sun meets the ocean we'll live on the edge until then. (X2 Times)

When he whispers I just see what he can do. Then I wonder, is it just me? Or has he done this before?
Because there's a secret and I know it, it makes my anger grow. I'll never know the things he's seen. We'll never get through this at all. At all.

Let's make this last forever until the sun meets the
ocean we'll live on the edge until then. (X2 Times)

She won't compare
(Don't do this)
She won't compare
(Don't do this)
She won't compare to me
(Don't do this to my heart)

Let's make this last forever until the sun meets the
ocean we'll live on the edge until then. (X2 Times)

(I'm ready to admit to all of them about this little secret we're keeping)
