All your stories told through lies, I believed (I don't believe you)
I forgave you just like I always have (I don't believe you)

And I fall victim to your sweetest lies, my deepest wounds. (x2)

Now you're down with no one there by your side (cause you deserve it)
So say goodbye to your crutch, say goodbye now (say goodbye now)

And I fall victim to your sweetest lies, my deepest wounds. (x a lot)

I used to hang on to every word you said, with a blind belief in us. I gave you my best, hoping that this would last forever. I see now there's no such thing, Forever's a joke and I've lost my sense of humor
