"Rise Up"

You gotta face the world
You gotta rise up and take a stand!!!

As a roaring lion satan walketh around
Seeking whom he may devour
They'll be signs in the sun
When the almighty comes
Down in clouds of glory and power
Which side may I ask would you rather be on
When the time is drawing near
Take my advice, don't give in to the lies
Show them it's no evil we fear

We'll fight it together
We'll sing it together
We'll fight it forever
We'll sing it together

Stand our ground with the grace that we've found
Slip on helmets of salvation
Swinging swords of the spirit
Gripping shields of faith
With perserverance and supplication
For we don't wrestle against human flesh
But against darkness of ages
Agaist Spiritual hosts of wickedness
Hiding out in heavenly places

Rise up and take a stand
