

The Defaced "Grow"

Visit "Grow" on MotoLyrics.com

Been safe for some time now
Never thought that this was not meant to be
I try to prevent myself
To say the words that make it even worse than it is What we've got here
I thought would last and that I would die with this feeling
Enslaved by my needs
I can't give up and give away

Grow

To survive we've got to committ
Is there anything to say that can change your mind?
The words that you say tear my guts
Anxiety is creeping up and I have to face the pain
The future was ours we said
What remains now belongs to the past
Open mind open soul
Have we failed?

Grow

Tell me what remains
Tell me what is left
Tell me what remains
Tell me what we've got
