Don't need no champagne or caviar
Don't need no Rolls Royce or Limousine
Don't need no expensive clothes
Don't need none of those
All I need is all the love you got
That's all I want, believe it or not

I'm just a poor boy, but I'm richer
Than the richest man on earth
I'm just a poor boy but I know
In my heart just how much,
True love, true love, true love
True love is really, worth

Don't need a castle up high in the the hills
Got no use for a hundred dollar bills
Don't need nothing else, as long as I got you to myself
All I need is all the love you got
That's all I want believe it or not

I'm just a poor boy, but I'm richer
Than the richest man on earth
I'm just a poor boy but I know
In my heart just how much,
True love, true love, true love
Is really worth

Poor boy, financially, but don't you see
I'm just a poor boy, but don't you know in reality

I'm just a poor boy, but I'm richer
Than the richest man on earth
