"Apology"

stabbing me a thousand times never missing a beat weaker hearts can't find the strength to surrender love won't kill your enemies so you tear my heart out with your bare hands it left me bleeding on the floor and your cold heart is now blacker than before and I won't forget how you let me choke to death apology accepted!

we could even have a decent conversation why can't you say "I'm sorry"? you tore off my hands when I stole your heart you said "it won't happen again" now normally things wouldn't be so bad but you never know... some girls are just fucking crazy!

now let's just pretend you didn't sleep with all my friends
I sure could use an apology or two
