close your eyes just one last time let this sadness slip around your mind even if you don't understand I'll be there...I'll be there...

another day raining down upon me another sleepless night alone where I'm waiting by the phone

help me if you can...if you can...

why can't things ever change?
cause I know my feelings do tomorrow brings better days
