hey now!
let's keep it PG-13 for the time being don't go and waste another line it's sounding quite familiar my guess is that's what happens when you drop it for the millionth time do you know this?

it's all in my head until you prove me wrong it's all in my head guess what? (this song goes out to you) don't think I'll ever look at you again I'll never talk to you again I'll never second guess

hey now!
let's keep it PC
I'll wait till you start breathing cause hyperventilating's never worked for me just one more time, then I'm dropping the bomb sincerely yours I've been all along oh, what it takes for you to listen night time brings a brand new cast of characters so dim the lights and play this on repeat and sing it soft with me...

next to me you're just too easy in my ears you won't stop screaming I'm getting off
night time brings a brand new cast of characters don't show your face till 2am come sunrise, and you'll be gone again play this on repeat sing it soft with me
