I remember when you left I thought I'd never see you again but tonight I hear you knocking go ahead, I won't let you in I'm a fool for falling for you what can I say? what can I do?
I should have listen to what my friends had said to get you out of my head, and my bed cause this relationship's dead

she's overrated [x3]
and there's nothing I can do about it you've got game and it's hurting just put in some honest time you won't be sitting at the side lines just waiting for your chance to play you say it doesn't mean a thing you think about me constantly but you won't win me back so go ahead, fake a heart-attack! you can write me a song but it's too late because I'm already gone

she's overrated [x3]
and there's nothing I can do about it

it's your own life, you can handle it so just go away it doesn't matter to me that you're still in love and it's so screwed up that you never listen to what your heart says, that's because... she's just overrated!
