Here you come
Your smile is on
Are you looking for diamonds?
Your kinky look
Doesn't do me any good
Too old to follow your traces
You keep moving on
Stop. I told you I was gone
Keep your hands off I'm not shaking
There's no dizzle wizzle pee
Stop touching my knee
Cos I'm going
Chorus
Someone a little bit taller
Someone a little bit brighter
Someone who can make me feel da-da-da
Ten of us now
Just laughing in the shower
Still trying to show us your faces
No dice boy
You're no more than a toy
And I'm going
Someone a little bit taller
Someone a little bit brighter
I know you won't make me feel da-da-da
Someone Someone
There you go
Nothing more then you can show?
I set my sights much higher
Someone a little bit smaller
Someone a little bit brighter
Someone who can make me feel da-da-da
Someone a little bit taller
Someone a little bit brighter
Someone who can make me feel da-da-da
Da-da-da-da-da-da
