Curse the day you wished the light
Seeking the peace on the other side
As the blind leads the blind
You run towards your own agony
With fear Iâ€™ve tried to break the chains
Taking pleasures in their pain of life
I am a liar in wait
Twisted and confused
We are liars in wait
Could we imagine the pain?
Terror prevails as you fall
Absence of light, works of hate
...towards the dawn of retribution
Towards the days of retribution
Show me a sign of your god!
Like a nail into my flesh
It seems relieve my sufferings
I crave mercy for my sins
In a time of lost souls
