You need some c-c-coke inspiration
For your s-s-seven year itch
She said it's just that your song's been playing too long
The world loves us and is our bitch, alright

Hiding in the water
Under the sea
Under the water
We've got all the money

Hello
Hello
Hello
Hello

You need some c-c-condescension
For your-r-r elegant witch
She said it's just that your song's been playing too long
The world loves us and is our bitch, alright

Hiding in the water
Under the sea
Under the water
We've got all the money

Hello
Hello
Hello
Hello

So accidents happen where the rain won't go
God is a color that we can't let go
And faith is admission that we just can't win
And we are just a part of this
We are just a part of this

Relatives matter when your legs don't work
KY, KY, STD
Alcohol matters when you can't be free

And love is eternal 'til it isn't anymore
Love is eternal 'til it isn't anymore

Love is eternal 'til it isn't anymore
Love is eternal 'til it isn't anymore

I try to cry but I'm just too tall
I've tried to cry but I'm just too tall
'Cos accidents happen where the rain won't go
Accidents happen where the rain won't go
