[Chorus]

Have you ever met somebody,
That will love you like I do
I'm going crazy, crazy for you.
And have you ever loved somebody,
That will give it all for you?
I'm going crazy, crazy for you.

[Verse 1]

I've always been by myself,
Lived life by myself.
Never cared for solitude,
Just cared for the wealth.
Steady stacking never slacking,
With no time to be wasted.
While these other dudes
Chasing broads,
I was chasing that paper.
But then, (but then)
Came you. (came you)
And it was over baby,
I was going crazy for you.
And I haven't felt this way in a minute.
And I'm not going to lie to you ma.
I think I'm starting to dig it.
Everything about you is what I like.
I go crazy and I lose my mind.
Trade my world and I'd give my life.
'Cause it feels so right.

[Chorus]

Have you ever met somebody,
That will love you like I do
I'm going crazy, crazy for you.
And have you ever loved somebody,
That will give it all for you?
I'm going crazy, crazy for you.

[Verse 2]

And every day you make clear,
That you don't want to be replaced,
Just by them little things you do,
Just by them little things you say.

Five years then pass,
And we done went through some drama.
From quates to miss carriages,
From you losing your mama.
But now, (but now)
I see, (I see)
That your my one and only baby.
Oh, I'm going crazy.
I can't eat, (can't eat)
Can't sleep, (can't sleep)
No more, no more.
It's like I toss and turn at night.
Memories is my pain.
I keep hearing you laughing,
Screaming calling my name.
Then my eyes open wide,
And I see you ain't there.
Then the joy from the music,
Turns into a permanate tear,
Of ink.

[Chorus]

Have you ever met somebody,
That will love you like I do
I'm going crazy, crazy for you.
And have you ever loved somebody,
That will give it all for you?
I'm going crazy, crazy for you.

[Verse 3]

My only sanity of these walls,
Is just the thought of you.
Paridise up in my mind,
Just for second or two.
But then it's gone, (long gone)
And I got to go too.
Because I changed my ways ma,
I'm coming home to you.
Fareal.

[Chorus]

Have you ever met somebody,
That will love you like I do?
I'm going crazy, crazy for you.
And have you ever loved somebody,
That will give it all for you?
I'm going crazy, crazy for you
