I could never find out why she lied where were you tonight?
Were you out of sight
I done wrong and wanted to get by she never told me why then she gave me the red light timbucktwo i call to you 1,2,3 down on my knees and when i got to 4 I fell to the floor I could never ask for more maybe someday you'll come back to me then you'll criticize all the things I hide I could never find out why you lied where were you that night were you out of sight?
