We're born alone
Into a world of consequence
No stranger's hand to guide us

Your skin and bones
Are all that's left for me to hold
Here on the edge of existence

If it's too complicated
We can leave it all behind
And for once we feel we can make it through alright

If tomorrow comes will you be here
We can take a stand and fight our fear
As we let go of all the things we hold so dear
If tomorrow comes

So out of touch
No remedy to ease the pain
I know our luck has run out

Your velvet words
Have left you fading all too fast
I'm standing close and distant

Is life so complicated
That I would let you ease away?
And a foolish girl will never find another heart
If tomorrow comes will you be here

We can take a stand and fight our fear
As we let go of all the things we hold so dear

If tomorrow comes
If tomorrow comes
If tomorrow comes

Is this the life I was promised

Is this all I can demand
It came and went and failed me
It came and went and failed me

And now I know, without it
I will never belong
I will never belong

Is life so complicated
that I would leave it all behind?
What a hellish way to make it through the day

If tomorrow comes will you be here
We can take a stand and fight our fear
As we let go of all the things we hold so dear

If tomorrow comes
If tomorrow comes will you be here
We can take a stand and fight our fear
As we let go of all the things we hold so dear

If tomorrow comes
If tomorrow comes
If tomorrow comes
