when im with you im flying without you im dying no denying the feelings or hiding your crying & sighing no verbal lying just smiling next to you lying & trying attention buying and prying but your applying pride like a lion exotic like a Hawaiian straight off an island with good timing, stepping into my life, for a night, making it bright, every things alright, willing to fight, for this out of sight, bite keeping game tight to keep her hooked on the line, w/the rhyme to make the dime mine, peace of mind to find, to shine like the sun, making two one, when its done but its just begun, having fun, cause the games won once she finally comes, making her feel numb, so with this pun ill make you laugh and smile my numbers what you'll dial have you diggin' my style making you want to be with me for a while; for me, you'll be runnin' miles or better yet next to me, walkin' down that isle yeah baby girl come and hurry back to me your shinin' like pearls & im feelin' flirty run you up on game like lebron james seasons change but my feelings for my dame will always stay the same aight babe dont worry i will hurry your sweeter than mcflurries n spicy like curry vision is blurry cause baby you caught my eye & i couldnt lie even if i was rastafari so be my butterfly, sugar, baby & ill gladly be your man if you be my lady love doesnt phase me, its just where i want to be in a barren land where its just you & me its a crazy town but no need to frown my style will make you smile flippin' the frown upside down

DONT TRIP BABY !

here to ease the fire thats burnin' up inside yah to acquire the desire that you & i require to get higher but without the bud, just on pure love, ill be your stud, & your man or all the above so what do you say will you my lady ill gladly nurture you just like a baby cause i really think we got something goin' and if i didn't then i would not be flowin' but thats how i do, keep it real & stay true trying to make an us out of me & you but if not boo then its all good i guess i had the situation misunderstood but hope for the best & much happiness you & I together is a state blissfulness
