Wow, I'm sick of doubt
Live in the light of certain
South
Cruel bindings.
The servants have the power dog-men and their mean women pulling poor blankets over our sailors

I'm sick of dour faces
Staring at me from the TV Tower, I want roses in my garden bower; dig?
Royal babies, rubies must now replace aborted Strangers in the mud These mutants, blood-meal for the plant that's plowed.

They are waiting to take us into the severed garden
Do you know how pale and wanton thrillful comes death on a strange hour unannounced, unplanned for like a scaring over-friendly guest you've brought to bed Death makes angels of us all and gives us wings

where we had shoulders smooth as raven's claws

No more money, no more fancy dress This other kingdom seems by far the best until it's other jaw reveals incest and loose obedience to a vegetable law.

I will not go
Prefer a Feast of Friends
To the Giant Family.
