"Woman In The Window"

I am the woman
In the window
See the children Playing

Soldier sailor
Young man on your way
To the summer
Swimming pool

Can you see me standing?
In my window
Can you hear me Laughing?

Come upstairs sir to your room and I will play for you

Oh dreamland
golden scene land
Try to sleep lamb
Take us to dreamland

I am unhappy
Far from my woman-
Take me to dreamland
Land of the Banyon

Land of plentiful
Pleasures of pines
& potatoes on tables
Laden with good things

Eat at my table
She cried to the vineyards
Calling the workers
Home from the meadows

Manyou are evil
get out of my garden
ours is a good place
Home of the rain deer

Sell me your pony
Your fast golden pony
I need his strength and his terrible footsteps

Riding the prairie
Just me and my angel
Just try to stop us
We're going to love

Open your window
Woman of Palestine
Throw down your raiment
and cover us over.
