Hey girl,
Let's meet at four in the morning
And we'll talk it up
I'm too old to be dreaming
You only live once
And life's so short
You've gotta live it up

Please pretty girl, won't you check my pulse?
I think my heart stopped beating
When it got caught in my throat
For one whole night
We'll leave this town and forget everyone,
Oh the trouble we'd cause
When they wake up in the morning to find that we've gone
Yeah and if we live, then we'll live in the moment
Like nothing comes after

You're showing me how
(Are you ready now, are you ready now?)
To be myself
And are you ready now?
So show me!

Your legs
And those hips
Soft breath off fingertips
Oh, lets be honest
You move me like no one
Your strength is my weakness
And when we collide, it's so right
Sent shivers down my spine
Oh let's be honest
We're running out of time

I'm a renegade
And baby make no mistake
I've got my hands tied
Living lies everyday
You know it's not the same
We can't acknowledge our connection

For the sake of saving face
So give it to me straight girl
(Give it to me straight girl)
Does he give it to you like I did
And now I'm losing all my heart
'Cause he's running circles around your bed

You're showing me how
(Are you ready now, are you ready now?)
To be myself
And are you ready now?
So show me!

Your legs and those hips
Soft breath off fingertips
Oh, let's be honest
You move me like no one
Your strength is my weakness
And when we collide, it's so right
Sent shivers down my spine
Oh let's be honest
We're running out of time

I want what everybody wants
'Cause I've been dreaming licks for love songs
And I've been landing hits all night to hook you on So if your heart will be the melody my arms will hold the verse
And if your lips will keep the chorus strong, by god

You're showing me how
To be myself
And are you ready now?
And are you ready now?

Your legs and those hips
Soft breath off fingertips
Oh, let's be honest
You move me like no one
Your strength is my weakness
And when we collide, it's so right
Sent shivers down my spine
Oh let's be honest
You move me like no one, your strength is my weakness
Whoa oh oh oh, whoa oh oh
Whoa oh oh
