Blocking out the words
Feed the fire
If only we could sleep
I'm so tired
Wake me when it's over
Throw me water
I'm on fire
But my face can't be put out
Put it out
Put me out
I am burning for you

It's all been done to you before
But not by me
You might have heard these word before
But not from
But not from me
Not from me

And will you give into the desire
Come over here
I'm on fire
Wake up now it's over
The water getting higher
I think we're going down
Going down
Catch me now
I'm falling into you

It's all been done to you before
But not by me
You might have heard these words before
But not from
But not from me

It's all been done to you before
But not by me
You might have heard these words before
But not from
But not from me

I want to

And deep inside you want me to
I want to
That look in your eyes says I want you to

It's all been done to you before
But not by me
You might have heard these words before
But not from
But not from me

It's all been done to you before
But not by me
You might have heard these words before
But not from
But not from me
Not from me
