Falling down
Don't knock me over
Sit down
Stand up again
This town is taking over me
Give back to me the things I used to be

I used to think I'd never fail
And if I did I wouldn't care
So what if I did
So what if I did

Turning around looking over my shoulders
Don't come around
Stay away from me

Time's running out
We're standing still
As days are passing by we run around in circles
Tell us how we never will without lying to ourselves
forever

I used to think that it was okay
It used to be it was
It used to be the thing that both of us once loved
Now that we are
We're growing older
The day is wasted
Give it back to me

Time's running out
We're standing still
As days are passing by we run around in circles
Tell us how we never will without lying to ourselves
forever

Teach me how to make it happen
I'm not afraid to learn anymore
So afraid of what will happen
What will happen

Time's running out

We're standing still
As days are passing by we run around in circles
Tell us how we never will
I know we will, I know we will

Around and around
Around and around
Around and around

Don't tell us how we never will without lying to ourselves
forever

Around and around
Around and around
Around and around

Around and around
Around and around
