What you do's, it do's me baby, do's me good now
What you do's to me, it do's me good You're the kind of guy I've been looking for You treat me good and I just wan't more
What you do's to me, it do's me good
You treat me like a lady You make me feel nice
A candellight dinner, pink champagne on ice
What you do's to me, it do's me good
What you do's, it do's me baby, do's me good now
What you do's to me, it do's me good
When the weekend comes,
I wanna be with you Let's hit the highway
Who knows where we might go
What you do's to me, it do's me good
A nice hotel with a view What's on my mind is being with you
What you do's to me, it do's me good
What you do's, it do's me baby, do's me good now
What you do's to me, it do's me good
"It was a rainy saturday at my parents home in Oklahoma City when somebody knocked on the door. Hjalmar went to open just to find this door-to-door salesman wanting to sell us some "miracle cleaning spray". The strongest line in his salespitch was: "It do's you so good". He was rambling about how good it would DO'S us for such a long time that we finally bought a can. We were cracking up laughing and we decided that it would be a cool line for a chorus. (But the spear sucked!)"
