What's happening?
Everyone has got some kind of problem
Depressed, confused, we're scared
We're just a little out of time
We're just a little out of time

What's happening?
Everyone around me seems so insecure
It's all too much
We're just a little out of time
We're just a little out of time

What's happening?
I stare at the clock
it's going, going tic-tok
Keeping me awake
I'm just a little out of time
We're just a little out of time

I feel like I'm losing control
When everybody's dreaming
It's tearing up my body, my soul
When everybody's sleeping

I feel like I'm losing control
When everybody's dreaming
It's tearing up my body, my soul
Yeah, my soul

The world evolves around me
The world evolves around me
The world evolves around me
The world evolves around me

Listen to the sound
It's the voice of your own heartbeat
Voices telling me "Get up on your feet"
Listen to the sound
It's the voice of your own heartbeat
Voices telling me "Get up on your feet"

I'm so tired, I'm so tired
I'm so tired, I'm so tired

Listen to the sound
It's the voice of your own heartbeat
Voices telling me "Get up on your feet"
Listen to the sound
It's the voice of your own heartbeat
Voices telling me "Get up on your feet"

I'm so tired, I'm so tired
I'm so tired, I'm so tired

The world evolves around me
The world evolves around me

I'm so tired, I'm so tired

The world evolves around me
The world evolves around me

No more poetry
Ain't got the melody
Everything is A OK
I need to recharge, the battery's run dry

No more poetry
Ain't got the melody
But everything is A OK
I need to recharge, the battery's run dry
The battery's run dry

Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now
Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now
Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now
Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now
Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now
Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now
Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now
Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now

No more poetry
Ain't got the melody
But everything is A OK
I need to recharge, the battery's run dry
The battery's run dry

Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now
Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now
Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now
Listen to the sound of your heartbeat now
