More to do
In a lot less time
I could have bought some
But "never-a-dime" doesn't help
I turned to crime,
What seemed the only option,
The adoption of a plan put in effect:
To pillage minutes
Why waste it?

[Chorus:]
Freedom:
Not unlike glass ceilings
Unfun:
All that i am feeling
Rewind, cause we never had the time
I won't sit down
I'm not following through
Some would assert that i don't care about my future
What motivates you?

More to do
In a lot less time
I could have bought some
But "never-a-dime",
It doesn't help

[Chorus]

They said "it's alright,"
And they told me
That they were good liars.

What motivates you?

Don't say "i don't care."
Coming up empty again.
But don't say (that) i don't care.
