It takes a little time
Takes a little while
We all need to stay strong
We all need to move on

It takes a little time
Cold, white lies
Is this an illusion?
What are we afraid of?

We had our times
We had our high and lows
And I'm almost sorry
Yeah, I'm almost sorry now

Too late to cry
Too late, goodbye
Two worlds apart
You're all I wanted
Too late to cry
Too late tonight
So sad, so hard
I'm almost sorry

Takes a little time
Takes a little while
You'll find someone to lean on
Someone to hold on
Your eyes are like the rain
But your heart's so in vain
We all need to stay strong
We all need to move on

Too late to cry
Too late, goodbye
Two worlds apart
You're all I wanted
Too late to cry
Too late tonight
So sad, so hard
I'm almost sorry

Too late to cry
Too late, goodbye
Two worlds apart
I'm almost sorry

Too late to cry
Too late, goodbye
Two worlds apart
You're all I wanted
Too late to cry
Too late tonight
So sad, so hard
I'm almost sorry

Takes a little time
I'm almost sorry
Takes a little while
I'm almost sorry
Takes a little time
I'm almost sorry
Takes a little while
I'm almost sorry

Takes a little time
Takes a little while
