Gimme just one minute of my own time
To prepare for our time
A waste of your time
It's as precious as you to die for me
But you've been feelin tired so what now I'm few misplaced words and scattered pieces of a song
Were never anything to hold someone like me back
But maybe I just can't think right now
I know i will live it tonite and forget about it tomorrow
And I am lonely with all these people around
And I am lonely with all these people around You sent me off tying bits of thought to my jacket and leaading me astray in your eyes.
I looked and i lay my head back as we traveled winding roads
And the air up against the windows, low voices humming sent me home
Well i dreamed i was awake and woke up in a dream, stumbling out of the car
Maybe i just can't think right now, right now
I know i will live it tonite and forget about it tomorrow
And I am lonely with all these people around
And I am lonely, and I am lonely
And maybe you think that my lips lied
But I hope that you never cried for me
Maybe between the broken pieces of lives we can share one heart
Yeah we can share one heart
Maybe i just can't think right now, right now
I know i will live it tonite and forget about it tomorrow
And I am lonely with all these people around
And I am lonely, and I am lonely
I am lonely
I am lonely
I am lonely, yeah
I am lonely, I am lonely, I am lonely, I am lonely, I am lonely, I am lonely
Thanks for the ride
