You've been looking in the wrong direction, but your prayers haven't been in vain Can't you see that the answer to your question, is right here calling out your name

Don't wanna see you hurting no more, don't wanna see you crying... it's time to face the future for sure
All you gotta keep on trying

Don't go... your troubles always follow you, it will be rough and tough on the road alone
Don't go... gonna make the sunshine bright for you
now, better to stand together than on your own

You've been saying that your heart grows colder, many worries try to hold you down Rest your heavy burden on my shoulder, and I know that we can work things out

Don't wanna see you hurting no more, I don't wanna see you crying... cause it's time to face the future for sure
All we gotta keep on trying

Don't go... your troubles they will follow you, it will be
rough and tough on the road alone
Don't go... gonna make the sunshine bright for you
now, better to stand together than on your own

Musical break

Don't wanna see you hurting no more, don't wanna see
you crying... it's time to face the future for sure
All you gotta keep on trying

Don't go... your troubles they will follow you, it will be
rough and tough on the road alone
Don't go... gonna make the sunshine bright for you
now, better to stand together than on your own

Better to stand together than on your own
Better to stand together than on your own
