And i left my friends
On the park streets outside park avenue
And i could have been much smarter than i am
And you said that could be true

You send me letters in the mail that tell me
What you're up to these days
You never leave the return address on any
But i think that's fine, it's alright

I'll find in time
And i lost some important things along the way
And while i don't miss them i'm sure i will someday

But i'm proud of my friends
For the looks we get when we walk by
And i'm sure we blend in with the higher end
But you'd see it'd be a lie

I took the more important things to me
And left them on the streets outside
And if they're still there in the morning
Then that means that they're all mine
It's all right

Yeah
Go to sleep
Go to sleep
You darling little kids
Don't you care what you said right
About speakers and the lights
Go to sleep
Go to sleep
Go to sleep
And don't you care about it
And if you said what you meant right
They can't accuse you of lying
Well lie then

And when i found those things could not defend
I can promise you i won't lose them again

And when i find the one that made me whole
I could turn right by, right
I'll be right
