

The El Loco Fwaba Xperience "Help Ya Through"

Visit "Help Ya Through" on MotoLyrics.com

We're almost there
The journey's almost over
It's alright
To have a friend tonight
To take your hand
And guide you through the places
That do not see the light
That do not see the faces
To help ya through
And guide you through the time ahead of you
When the world starts to crumble
I'll make sure you won't stumble
When the world comes to pass
I'll make sure you don't hurt your spleen
I just want what's inside you
And that doesn't mean your guts
I'm losing my self control
What I'm really looking for
Is your soul
To help help help help help help help help
To help... Us through
