Control the population.
How precise they stock the flesh.
Feeding our emotions sedate our consciousness.
Entice us. Design us.
Pawns for the minds that plot destruction in this New World Order.
The pain-instilled fear drives this urgency.
Steeped in this paranoia that justifies the wars, lives are lost.
We are the sacrifice destroying human life.

Lords of War for power and dominance.
Lords of War feed the supremacy.

Some stand in protest, others brave on the front lines.
War is a symptom, the balance of order and corruption.
Some of us watch in horror and disgust, while others'
lust for blood draws them to watch it all burn.

Lords of War for power and dominance.
Lords of War feed the supremacy.

Lords of War for power and dominance.
Lords of War feed the supremacy.
