"Guilty"

Visit "Guilty" on MotoLyrics.com

I am guilty
I confess everything
I take the responsibility for all the bad
I don't ask for mercy though there must be someone to be punished

I
sacrifice
myself For wronged, ill-treated, murdered of the whole world
I have courage to confess I've done to help 'em!

I hope the great ones of this world
Will dream nightmares of their unknown victims Maybe one day they will wake

Scared
in the middle of the night
they shall cry

I know no one sympathizes me Let it be I will be stronger when the time comes to pay the price

I am guilty
I confess everything
