Wrote you a song today

Well, it's not that much I just kinda wanted to say

Thanks for picking up the pieces

Yeah, you know you made these lies more plausible

Dropped you a line today

Well, it's not that much I just kinda wanted to say

Hope everything's going alright

And I hope you're as happy as you'd like to be

And I'll do

My Part to rid you of this

Broken Heart

And I'm here to say

Heres to you and

A Million Perfect Days...
