Met a girl named Aja

She said her dad loved Steely Dan

I laughed and asked her if her sister's name was Katy

Her smile spoke in volumes

Her eyes were like the sky

I said props to him cause that's the coolest name I've ever heard

I kinda dig these Midwest summers

Lets go hang out at "the pub"

A couple of beers from now she'll disappear

Aja you're the only one I dream about these days

Lets go drink some more and listen to "The Royal Scam"
