Girl of mine

Why don't you go and tell another lie

Why don't you go because the truth hurts much too much sometimes

So baby tell another lie

Sugarcoat the truth and baby tell me that you love me again

'Cause I couldn't bear to hear I'm just another one of your friends

And you don't have to be sincere

Just tell me what I want to hear

Sugarcoat the truth 'cause I don't wanna be the one left behind

And I couldn't live knowing that I was never worth and time

And I got reason to believe

That you know just how to deceive

Gimme something I can hold onto

'Cause you know I'm still in love with you

Gimme something I can take back home

'Cause I don't wanna be alone
