

The Ergs! "Fluorescent Stars"

Visit "Fluorescent Stars" on MotoLyrics.com

You walked in today
You bought KRS-One
I walked in to say
Do you have Kill The Musicians?
They sold us the things
That we grew up on

They both share a name
But they're not quite the same
But I can still pretend that we're together

Thought of you today
I wonder where you are
Underneath the glow of these fluorescent stars
Contemporary rock never seemed so far

They both share a name
But they're not quite the same
And I can't help but wish we were together
