My screaming is burning the silence
Your pitiful lives I will take
I summon the infernal fury
You won't see another dawn break
My eyes are reflecting my anger
My face is the bringer of pain
The skies of oblivion I shatter
This day, you will all know my name
The Burning Path I've chosen
That day the heavens screamed in pain
It's raining blood, I'm closer
The essence of your soul I'll drain
Immortal I stand through the ages
Your soul is my greatest desire
In the cold web of fate I was captured
I'm walking a trail of fire
My screaming is burning the silence
The heavens now know my name
My cry cloaks this world into darkness
My laughter is the meaning of pain
The Burning Path I've chosen
That day the heavens screamed in pain
It's raining blood, I'm closer
The essence of your soul I'll drain
