"Empty Boxes"

A beggar me, a count of empty boxes
That is all I own in this world
Oh Diana, sweet Diana

To flirt & fling a young girl dressed in ribbons
Taking fancies to those like you

Yet you wait with mourning in your hair
& now I need good reason, but I've none to spare
You are just a leaf that I have turned & I am like a match that slowly burns

A beggar me, a count of empty boxes
That is all I own in this world
Oh Diana, sweet Diana
