I'm calling you up; I'm counting it down Carving out a path to where you are it's automatic even blind and in the dark
It's almost like you're calling me, got to get where you are Carving out a place for me to stay, tryin to find my only hideaway
I think I hear you calling me, got to get to where you are

Calling you up, counting it down
Pumping all the blood out of my heart
Calling you up, counting it down
These puzzles are making me your slave
Calling you up, counting you down
You're taking all the sleep out of my bed
Calling you up, counting it down
The perfect way to misbehave
1, 2, 3, go!

Your picture paints a perfect map, carving out a way to get you back
It's almost like you're calling me
You've always known

I said baby when I get there
I said baby when I get there, I'm home

Calling you up, counting it down
Pumping all the blood out of my heart
Calling you up, counting it down
These puzzles are making me your slave
1234, I'm counting it down
You're taking all the sleep out of my bed
1234, I'm counting it down
Shoveling the dirt into my grave

Into my grave
Carving out a path to where you are, where you are I said baby when I get there, I said baby when I get there
I'm yours
1234, I'm calling you up

Pumping all the blood out of my heart
1234, I'm counting it down
These puzzles are making me your slave
1234, I'm calling you up
You're taking all the sleep out of my bed
1234, I'm counting it down
Shoveling the dirt into my grave
