You kind of get me high off your breath
It makes me wanna stay, wanna stay for the summer
If every weekend that is like this I might never go home, never go home You're like a magnet baby and it makes me wanna stay, wanna stay here forever Backing out of everything else
And nothing looks better on you than myself

Now you make me forget where I am and I can't stop Getting close to you wherever you are
And I hope it never (never) never (never) never never ever stops
Now you make me forget where I am and I can't stop Getting close to you wherever you are
And I hope it never (never) never (never) never never
ever stops
You're walking away and you're breakin my heart
You're walking away and you're breakin my heart

If I had only known it was gonna be like this
You know I would have done it so much sooner You're kind of blowin my mind, you're an animal
I may never go home again
You're like hotter than the sun
And it makes me want stay, wanna stay here forever I'm backing out of everything else and nothing looks better on you than myself

Now you make me forget where I am
And I can't stop getting close to you wherever you are
And I hope it never (never) never (never) never never
ever stops
(You're walking away and you're breakin my heart)
Now you make me forget where I am and I can't stop getting close to you wherever are
And I hope it never (never) never (never) never never
ever stops
You're walking away and you're breakin my heart

You can't stop, you can't stop breaking me
You can't stop, you can't stop making me

You can't stop, you can't stop breaking me
You can't stop, really can't stop making me sweat Because your heart won't follow the sun I'm backing out of everything else, because nothing looks better on you than myself

Now you make me forget where I am
And I can't stop getting close to you wherever you are
And I hope it never (never) never (never) never never
ever stops
(You're walking away and you're breakin my heart)

Now you make me forget where I am
And I can't stop getting close to you wherever are
And I hope it never (never) never (never) never never
ever stops
(You're walking away and you're breakin my heart)

Now you make me forget where I am
And I can't stop getting close to you wherever are
And I hope it never (never) never (never) never never
ever stops
You're walking away and you're breaking my heart
(You're walking away and you're breaking my heart)
