We've always been more than just good friends,
But you know we've never been an item
And when he hurts you girl,
Come around here to spite him

I don't know anything,
But I've heard all the rumours in town,
There's trouble in paradise,
Your heart is gonna pay the price.

We've always said things we didn't mean,
But now we say them more and more.
So when I say to you,
I'm getting bored like I was before.

I don't know anything,
But the word is getting around,
There's trouble in paradise,
Your heart is gonna pay the price.

There's nothing wrong with us,
You're just self absorbed.
It was in your shadow,
But they don't know.

I don't know everything,
But I've heard all the rumours in town,
There's trouble in paradise,
Your heart is gonna pay the price.
